~~that is not related to the The Frontrooms. It is usually an~~ escape game, but sometimes it will be a game where you have to find and save someone or fight enemies. You will get three lives. If you win the game, the machine will disappear and you'll wake up at a level listed in the exits.

It is to be noted that only an unknown amount of people that completed the game were transported to Level 3999, and the rest were transported to another level. It's not advised to attempt to noclip into this level. Any mentions of this level will be improved by someone' By one of Entity 555 to make it incorrect and make it worse, and by an unknown entity, attempting to defeat entity 555, but this level is very mysterious and many things are still unknown about it, your not safe from hostile entities, too.*

It is to be noted that the reason why the survival difficulty is pending is because of the constantly changing arcade game that varies from each wanderer to wanderer. That's the fun of it! You never know what's gonna happen next or what you're gonna play! Just give it a try!

Game Paused

It's alright! Go ahead and pause the game. Sit on the couch until you're ready to play again.

however, there is only one bottle and you cannot stay here forever. The supplies you bring to Press Start will be left in the main room of the level. Don't attempt to noclip them into this room because it's considered cheating

There was once a confirmed rumor that noclipping into the couch would lead to the level you go to when you win, however Entity 555 quickly found out about this.

Nocliping into the couch will now lead to the highly unstable level "cheaters" go to. find the floor that is made of birch, noclip to escape

*We're not evil! They do make us look evil, but that's not the case. We don't want to hurt you, we just want to give you a chance. A chance to play our game. A chance to WIN! A chance to be safe.
